Pastor's Memo

What powerful and exciting Sundays we have been having at WCC! The church has been full of God's presence and full of God's people every week. We have been talking about subjects such as faith, prayer and worship. I can tell that the spiritual growth of our church is really beginning to take off. Let me tell you about a few new things that are beginning to happen. For the purposes of your own encouragement and outreach, I now have a YouTube channel where my Sunday morning messages are recorded in eight minute segments. You can go to this channel to hear the message again. You can also tell others who may be interested in coming to our church or whom you are inviting or you can post the messages on Facebook or MySpace.

Here is what you do:

- Go to YouTube.com
- Click on "channel"
- Put in paulcunninghamwcc

It will take you to the channel and then you can click on the message. You can become a subscriber to it as well. There are also songs that Sean has done that can be used in the same way. The point is that we need to continue to be aggressive and intentional about inviting people. There are still so many people out there that would look for a church but they are waiting to be invited. From now until Easter is one of the most receptive times of the year for people to come. So let's keep packing the house for the glory of God!

See You Sunday!
 Pastor Paul

Wondering What "Morgan's Long Walk" is?

Have you been seeing the t-shirts around church and wondering what the deal was? Morgan Strong has been a member of WCC since last year. She has an interesting story that you can read all about at facebook.com/morganslongwalk. Here is some of that story:

"I was baptized May of 2009 and in July, God called me to be a missionary. I wasn't sure where He wanted me to go, or what He wanted me to do, until recently. After much prayer, digging into the Word, talking with people, and fasting, I've learned that God is directing me to go on a walk with Him and for Him. I'm going to be heading out around early spring 2010 and letting Him lead me. I know, sounds crazy right? This is so not anything I would choose for myself! Yet, the more I agree to this, the more God is opening doors to make this happen. It's exciting. I can't wait! I'm excited, nervous, exhilarated, scared, yet most of all, so full of peace. I can just see God's hand on my life everywhere I look. And I'm inviting you to be there as I take this journey."

Morgan will start her walk on April 5th. She will leave from WCC before noon. Morgan plans on heading south. If you want to keep up with her journey, both now and after she leaves on the walk, visit her Facebook page. You can post encouraging words and also be encouraged by Morgan's posts.

Step Across The Bridge!

By now, you may have heard about the new Christian Boarding House operated by the WCC Prison Ministry Team. A great group of volunteers has been working diligently—with great results! The Bridge has been recently renovated and decorated. It has become a beautiful, peaceful place that we hope will be a blessing to women transitioning back into society!

We invite you to come see The Bridge for yourself, this Sunday, March 7th from 2-5 p.m. The Bridge is located at 3905 NW 13th—west off of Portland. While you are there, you can order some Pampered Chef and help stock the kitchen at The Bridge. You can also call Tanya at 378-0100 & give her an order to help out The Bridge.

Email Ministry

If you haven't signed up what are you waiting for? Over 300 people have signed up for this ministry. Learn how to pray scripture. A great way to help you re-focus during the day. Pray for the church and the ministries of the church. Go to westmoorechurch.com/prayer.
